The Registers

OF

Mickleover

(1607 TO 1812).

PREFACE.

Mickleover (Great Over) lies about three miles W.S.W. from Derby, and comprises the Chapelries of Littleover and Findern. The Registers, from their commencement in 1607 to 1812, are contained in four volumes, including a great many entries concerning the inhabitants of both Littleover and Findern.

As will be seen later on, the Baptisms and Burials from 1806 to 1811 are entered in the Littleover Registers, and there are no entries to be found for 1812 with the exception of Marriages. A very interesting table of the inhabitants of Mickleover for 1811 will be found in the Littleover portion.

The first volume (1607 to 1671) contains 38 parchment pages, size 1 ft. 7 in. by 7¼ in., and in consequence of its length has been doubled in the middle; this has caused the pages to be much crumpled. Several of the pages have been cut, some being much discoloured, and the writing in places scarcely discernible. The cover is of parchment, being scribbled all over, whilst the Register itself is written on both the inside covers. The arrangement of the entries is as follows:—

				Pages of the original.
Baptisms	1607-1671	1-23
Marriages	1607-1670	24-28
Burials	1607-1660	29-38

The second volume (1671 to 1736) contains 42 parchment pages, size 1 ft. 8½ in., by 9 in., and has also like its predecessor been doubled in the middle. It is in much the same condition as the first volume. The cover is of parchment, much torn and dilapidated, the insides being partly written upon. The arrangement of the entries is as follows:—

			Pages of the original.
Baptisms	1071-1736 1-21
Marriages	1671-1732 22-26
Burials	*1671-1732 27-42

The third volume (1741 to 1805) contains 88 parchment pages, size 12 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. by 8 $\frac{1}{4}$ in., and has two pages at the commencement and two at the end of paper, the last two being blank. It is bound in full dark brown calf, and is in good condition. The arrangement of the entries is as follows:—

			Pages of the original.
†Baptisms	1741-1756 2-11
‡Marriages	1741-1753 11-16
Baptisms	1756-1759 17-21
†Burials	1741-1805 22-42
Baptisms	1759-1805 43-90

The fourth volume (1754 to 1814) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper. It contains 96 pages (the last three being unused), size 15 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. by 9 $\frac{3}{4}$ in., and has four certificates of marriage on each page. It is bound in stiff boards, covered with white vellum, and is in good preservation. At the end of the book there are 24 pages of ruled paper, containing Banns of Marriages from 1754 to 1784. These occupy fourteen pages, the last ten being blank.

I am greatly indebted to the Rev. R. C. Bindley, M.A., Vicar of Micklegate, for his kindness in permitting me to transcribe these Registers, and to Mr. Ernest B. Smith, of Derby, for his assistance in reading and preparing these Registers for print.

* A gap of eleven years missing, the last volume ending 1660.

† A gap of five years missing, the last volume ending 1736.

‡ A gap of nine years missing, the last volume ending 1732.

INSCRIPTIONS ON TOMBSTONES.

There are no ancient monuments in the Church. Dr. Pegge, circa 1775, says, "there were inscriptions on Tombstones of y^e Newtons in y^e Chancel, but they are quite worn out by boys trampling & playing thereon, school being frequently taught there."

There are a few old stones in the Churchyard, some of which have been removed from the Church at its restoration. I think it will be interesting to give these, as in some cases they are scarcely readable, and in a few more years they will be quite so, like some already; further, some of them are not to be found in the Registers and are therefore the only record to be found of some of the old inhabitants. These have been marked with an asterisk (*) :—

The Rev^d John Ward, Vicar.

June 1st 1786.

N.B.—The Sum of Forty Pounds was left by a William Botham to the Poor of this parish, the Interest of which is to be paid yearly on S^t Thomas Day to poor Housekeepers who do not receive pay from the parish, and out of the said Interest money Ten Shillings is to be paid to the Clergyman for preaching a Sermon on the said Day. The principal money is now in the hands of Joseph Earle, who has never paid any proper Interest, or made any proportional distribution to the poor of the parish. Nor have the parish any written Evidence that the said money is so lodged nor have they been at all careful about any security from the said M^r Earle.

The above mentioned Joseph Earle was Father of 3 illegitimate children by his housekeeper, Elizabeth Kirkland (or Karkland, or Carke, for thus the name is entered in 3 places), see Baptisms in years 1778, 1781, 1782.

Littleover.

(1680 TO 1812.)

PREFACE.

Littleover (Little Over) lies about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles S.W.S. from Derby, and was formerly a chapelry of Mickleover. The Registers commence in 1680, and consist of three volumes, bringing the entries down to 1812.

The first volume (1680 to 1774) is a parchment book, size $14\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $6\frac{1}{4}$ in., containing 48 pages, of which eight are blank. The book has recently been bound in whole white vellum. Many of the pages are shorter than the rest, and have at some period been cut at the bottom, with the result that some entries are unreadable, and it may be some have been cut off altogether.

The arrangement of the entries is as follows :—

	Pages of the original.
Baptisms, Marriages & Burials 1680-1707*	1-14
Baptisms 1740-1755	15-20
Burials 1741-1771	21-26
Marriages 1741-1754	31-33
Baptisms 1755-1774	34-45

The Vicar thinks that before the Register was rebound, the leaves being all loose, some were lost, though some entries, marriages especially, are to be found during this period at the mother church of Mickleover, but even in that Register there is a gap from 1732 and 1736 to 1741, so that all entries are lost for both Parishes during that period.

The second Register (1773 to 1812) is on parchment, size $15\frac{3}{4}$ in. by 11 in., containing 78 pages, of which 17 are blank. On the outside of the cover is stamped, "Register, Baptisms and Burials in Mickleover and Littleover." The arrangement of the entries is as follows :—

	Pages of the original.
Baptisms and Burials, Mickleover, 1806 to 1811	1-9
Table of Inhabitants, Mickleover, for 1811 ..	10-25
Table of Inhabitants, Littleover, for 1811 ..	26-36
Baptisms and Burials, Littleover, 1773 to 1812	49-78

* A gap of thirty-three and thirty-four years occurs after this date.

The third Volume (1757 to 1813) contains Marriages only, and is a small book, size $8\frac{1}{4}$ in. by 6 in., containing 138 pages of plain paper, of which 89 are blank. It is bound in stiff parchment covers. There is a long gap from 1783 to 1801 without any marriages being recorded, but these will be found in the Mickleover Registers.

I am greatly indebted to the Rev. H. Milnes Walker, M.A., late Vicar of Littleover, for his kindness in permitting me to transcribe these Registers.

NOTE.—A List of the Vicars will be found in the Mickleover Registers.

INSCRIPTIONS ON TABLETS AND TOMBSTONES.

There is only one monument in this church (an Elizabethan one) on the north wall of the chancel, to Sir Richard Harpur and his lady. The knight is represented in a long gown, with hanging sleeves, and the lady in a ruff, black dress and hood. They are kneeling at a desk, on which are the arms of Harpur, impaling Resesby. Below are three boys kneeling, an infant swathed in its chrysom, and three girls also kneeling. On a panel is the following inscription:—"Richardus Harpur Miles justiciarius Pacis & Quorum ad annos triginta & quinque Justiciariorum hujusce Comitatus dum vixit antiquissimus necon ejusdem vice prefectus ad annos quamplurimos. In uxorem duxit Maria filiam Thomæ Reserby de Thribur in Comitatu Eborocensi armigeri, prolemque ex ea habuit quat^{or} filias & tres filias. Obiit Martii 16^o A.D. 1635."

In the chancel, underneath the Communion Table, is a tombstone, entirely lost to sight, and indeed its whereabouts was entirely unknown till the recent restoration and enlargement of the church (1908) brought it to light, with the following inscription:—"Here is buried the body of Richard Harpur, elder son and heire of Richard Harpur, of Littleover in the County of Derby, Esquire, son and heir of Sir Richard Harpur, of the same towne and county, Knight, who lived a single life until the age of 58 years and dyed in the true faith & feare of God, 1676. Rob not the dead, Be merciful to the dead, for they receive noe further reward from you." Round the stone runs an inscription, partly cut away: ". . . not over the death of thine enemies, envie not the will of the Almighty. . . . of judgment for all mans stayes are but vanitie. Eternal rest, Eternal peace." This Richard Harpur gave a pulpit in 1670. Bassano, in his "Church Notes, 1710," says there was "upon ye verge of ye canopy of ye pulpit—the gift of Richard Harpur, bacheler."

There was a tomb which had an inscription on it in 1662 as follows:—"Hic jacet Ricus Sanson Ar: et Dorothea uxor ejus filia Radi Sachverell de Radcliffe Ar qui Ricus obiit . . . (Dodsworth's MSS., Bodleian Library). This has entirely disappeared.

On the south side of the chancel, underneath the floor and entirely hid from view, is the following:—

In a Vault underneath lies In terred the Body of John Harpur Esq.
who departed this life the 17th Day of April 1754, aged 32.

On the north side of the chancel, on the floor and partly hid by the organ, is the following:—

Hic jacet corpus Johannis Harpur
Armigeri, qui obiit Mortem
tertio die Septembris
Anno Domin. 1721. Jesus Christus
est Salvator omnium virorum.
Here are deposited the Remains of Madam Mary Harpur
Worthy Relict of John Harpur Esquire
She was a Lady of Grat(iousness?)
Charity and every domestick Virtue
That did Honour to all her relations
In life and was long ye ornament of this neighbourhood where
Her acquaintance will tell ye rest with grief, her Children rise up and call her Blessed.
She exchanged this for a better world June 27, An^o Dom 1741, aged 73.

The following is a list of old tombstones in the churchyard, some of which are very nearly unreadable, there being also a few which are quite so. Those marked with an asterisk (*) are not to be found in the Register.

WITHIN THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER,

Issued by the Committee of Parish Registers,

By Authority of the WORCESTER DIOCESAN CONFERENCE.

This Digest has been prepared under the direction of a Committee appointed at the Diocesan Conference, held at Birmingham, in 1896, and has been completed from the original Returns supplied by the Incumbents of the Parishes within the Diocese. The dates when each Volume of Registers commence and end, the number of leaves, material on which they are written, and the size and general condition, are all clearly stated under each parish.

Added to all this useful information is a table showing for what years in every parish the Bishops' Transcripts, previous to 1700, are now in existence in Edgar Tower, Worcester.

As only a limited number of copies has been printed, early application is necessary to secure a copy.

A Supplement to How to Write the History of a Family,

By W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

The First and Second Editions have been long since quite exhausted. Much additional information of practical value has been gathered together since the handbook was issued, and this has been put together in the form of a separate supplement, so that it may be available for the possessors of each edition. The supplement matches the original work.

It contains amongst other matter a Chapter for Beginners, Chapters on Scotch and Irish Genealogy and Records, which have been revised by Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, and the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, Ireland, and revised Lists of Probate Registries (England, Scotland, and Ireland) and Marriage Licenses, etc.
